

Jason Hillegas

Jason Hillegas is a functional potter that focuses on the domestic object and elevating our daily routine. “I enjoy the interaction between the user and the pot. My functional work is for enjoying moments from our past and present, sharing a story with a friend or family over a meal.”

Hillegas received his BFA in Art Education from Mercyhurst University and has his Master’s equivalency from Hood College and the University of Tennessee. He was born and raised in Pittsburgh, PA and has taught pottery and coached at North Hills High School for the past 24 years. During this time, he has taught workshops at Sweetwater Center for the Arts, served on the board for The Craftmen’s Guild of Pittsburgh, juried the Three Rivers Arts Festival and worked as a Studio Assistant at Arrowsmont School of Arts and Crafts.
