GALLERY EXHIBITION POLICIES
with CCN

By signing this contract, you are legally bound to all terms below. Failure to comply with these terms will result in legal action. For the purpose between the parties concerned, the following agreement is made and signed. The undersigned agrees to the following:

1. No accepted piece will be removed from the show for any reason during the dates of the show. Substitutions of work can only be made with the written approval of the NHAC Staff.
2. By signing below the artist gives CCN and the NHAC the right to use any piece from the show for publicity purposes so long as proper credit is given the artist. In accordance with federal and international copyright law, copyright remains the sole property of the artist.
3. CCN & the NHAC each claim a 25% commission from the sale of any piece during the exhibit, whether sold by a CCN Staff, NHAC Staff or the artist. The artist claims a 50% commission.
4. CCN & the NHAC accept responsibility for publicity and the exhibit program.
5. CCN & the NHAC are not responsible for any damage, loss or theft from the exhibit.
