

Victor Beltran

Victor Beltran is an accomplished artist and art teacher who has been sketching and painting locales from around the world for over 40 years. His collections of Western Pennsylvania include Fallingwater, the Phipps Conservatory, Cook Forest, and Carnegie Museum. Victor has won numerous awards and has exhibited in the US including at the Carnegie Museum of Art in Pittsburgh, Mexico, Peru, Ecuador in the Peruvian Embassy Gallery, and Brazil.

Falling Water

Victor Beltran has over 50 years of experience in architecture, illustration and watercolor. As an accomplished watercolorist and teacher, he has taught at Phipps Conservatory, conducted workshops for artists' guilds, and previously served as Vice-President of the Pittsburgh Watercolor society.

After many years of sketching throughout the world, Victor has developed extraordinary fine-tuned skills where he can quickly sketch spontaneously to produce stunning images regardless of place or setting.

Beltran produces artistic works that build on his talents and training which is expressed in his spontaneous art forms. In the spring of 2009, Victor produced an event, Art Just in Time, where he produced 16 acrylic paintings in a day. Recently, during a live performance by the Bach Choir of Pittsburgh, Victor created 4 paintings while perched on high a scaffold during Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition.

During his travels to Europe, Canada, Ecuador, Mexico and Eastern United States, Victor Beltran has completed over 60 sketch books which depict thousands of locals including the Swiss Alps, Venice, Paris, Amsterdam, Munich, Rome, Sienna, Florence, Seville, Cordoba, Granada and San Miguel de Allende, Taxco, Morelia and Quito.

Victor is a member of the Pittsburgh Watercolor Society and Associated Artists of Pittsburgh. Beltran, a native of Lima, Peru, came to Pittsburgh in 1986 and currently resides in the Fox Chapel Area.

Pennsylvania Barn 7